- 1.2 The IMOCA class will be sailed two-handed, or two-handed with an On-Board Reporter approved by the class association.

14.1 Weather and Tidal Information:

- 1.3 Rule 41(c) is replaced by:
A boat shall not receive help from any outside source, except (c) help in the form of information which is available on a public domain, free or by paid subscription. This shall include navigational, weather, tide or current information from any source which is readily available to all boats whether or not by payment of a fee or subscription, but shall not include information gathered or the subject of interpretation by, or any advice received from, any direct human input not on board the boat and which is specific to the boat and her situation. By way of an example and interpretation, any publicly offered Internet weather data, forecasts, or cloud routing service available to all competitors, whether on a subscription or free basis, is permitted. Permissible Internet-sourced weather data, forecasts, or cloud routing services accessed by a yacht while racing must be computer-generated and free from any direct human input from off the boat.

Note (not part of the Rule change): This change allows cloud-based routing such as PredictWind to be used, where sending the boat's position and polar data would be required.
